FROM THE

SECRETARY OF STATE

WITH A FOREWORD BY

THE LIST OF PASSENGERS

Who arrived in the United States from the 1st October, 1897, to the 30th September, 1898.

FEBRUARY 16, 1891.

Printed by order of the Senate of the United States.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
Washington, 17th February, 1821.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit to the Senate a transcript of all the Lists of Passengers taken on board ships and vessels in foreign ports and places, which arrived in the United States from the first of October, 1819, to the 30th September, 1820, inclusive, that have been returned to this office by the Collectors of the Customs, in pursuance of the 5th section of the act of 2d March, 1819, "regulating passenger ships and vessels;" by which it appears, that the number of persons of all descriptions, so taken on board ships and vessels arriving in the United States during the period referred to, viz. for the last quarter of 1819, and the three first quarters of 1820, amounts to 10,247.

I have the honor to be, with very great respect,

Sir, your obedt. and very humble servant,

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS.

The President pro tempore of the Senate.

1811

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON, 17th November, 1811.

First I have the honor to transmit to the Senate a transcript of all the lists of passengers taken on board ships and vessels in foreign ports and places, which arrived in the United States from the first of October, 1810, to the 30th September, 1811, inclusive, that have been retained in this office by the Collector of the Customs, in pursuance of the 5th section of the act of 22 March, 1810,
"regulating passenger ships and vessels," by which it appears that the number of persons of all descriptions, so taken on board ships and vessels arriving in the United States during the period referred to, viz. the last quarter of 1810, and the first quarter of 1811, amounts to 17,500, including 1,500 females and 16,000 males.
